1. Aeroflot

1.1 As Aeroflot faces sales practices of some travel agencies that bring unproductive growth of costs and increased risk for the airline, continuous monitoring of sales by Point of sale/Point of Origin criteria is introduced.

If in the agent's sales structure there is a dominant share of O&Ds irrelevant to the region where the agency is located, we will request for detailed clarification on the nature of that traffic and the partners it came from.

The following factors are considered as highly undesirable and sometimes critical:

1. Massive sales of O&Ds Ex-Russia and Ex-China by agencies outside of Russia/China respectively;
2. Unusually high share of one way tickets, especially with destinations in Russia and China.

Aeroflot kindly ask you to avoid cooperation with partners/suppliers that generate the types of traffic described above.

5. China Airlines

5.1 China Airlines request you not to encourage any practice that result in abuse of inventory and misuse of GDS/CRS enabled facilities. You are requested to remove all the future abusive segments.

Kindly discourage any other practice that is not ethical to the company policy and ensure that all employees across all locations are made familiar with this policy.

Abusive booking will be auto detected by HO and such transactions would be liable for an ADM of INR 5500/- per passenger.

HO may also block the respective PCC if the same is not followed.

The airline requests their trade partners to add local and US/Canada contact numbers in the PNR to enable them with smooth handling of passengers.

6. EL AL Israel

6.1 In recent years, EL AL Israel Airlines Ltd. ("EL AL") has faced many challenges arising, among other things, from the "open skies" policy, which led to increasing competition on the part of worldwide air carriers and large global alliances, and from rapid changes in consumption habits-as a consequence of the revolution in digital marketing channels.

At the same time, the worldwide trend in the aviation industry of modifying the remuneration model between airlines and travel agents continues.

In light of this, EL AL is obliged to change the structure of its remuneration model for travel agents/wholesalers, which currently includes an upfront commission of 5%.

Accordingly, EL AL hereby notifies you that as of 1st June 2019, EL AL will cease paying an upfront commission for the sale of EL AL's tickets.

EL AL is giving notice of this change today, in order to allow preparations to be made for its entrance into effect in approximately one year.

At the same time, EL AL will continue to promote its relationships with travel agents and wholesalers.

6.2 EL AL presents a new service: Priority Boarding (PBDG).

The service can be availed by all passengers and at all ELAL destinations. It can be purchased at a special introductory price of $6 per passenger per flight direction.

To order the service, reservations should be updated with **SSR PBDG
Confirmation of the service is subject to advance allocation.

The service is subject to quota and available for bookings in all sale channels (except the EL AL website) and subject to EMD issuance.

ELAL Frequent Flyer members with GL/PL/TP status, as well as passengers holding FLEX tickets, are entitled to the service at no cost (the SSR will be updated on the reservation automatically with the exemption indicator (#); there is no need to book the service).

Advantages of Priority Boarding:

- Priority boarding benefits will be reflected on the boarding pass) Zone B) and boarding the aircraft will be accordingly.
- Passengers board early and reach their seats quickly.
- Advance boarding will assure passengers a place to store hand luggage close to their seats.

Further info about the service can be found on EL AL website:

<https://www.elal.com/en/PassengersInfo/Uniqe-Services/Pages/Priority-Boarding.aspx>

**Additional details regarding booking the service are available on the distribution systems.
